NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Holcombe Ward, president of the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association, believes that the national championships and a few other major tournaments will be staged this year, although nearly all of the senior men players are in service.

Despite the wintry weather, he suddenly became tennis conscious when re-headed Don Budge, king pin of the professionals, entered the U.S. Army Thursday. Accordingly we contacted Ward, prey of the amateurs.

"We have scheduled tentatively the national championships for Forest Hills, Sept. 1 to 6," Ward said. "We already have received applications for staging the eastern championships at Key, N.Y., and three other tournaments—the Jackson Heights, N.Y., the New York, and the Tri-State at Cincinnati. These applications include the Olympic trend."

TO ARRANGE TOURNAMENT
THE U.S.L.T.A. advisory committee will meet next month to map plans for the summer, Ward added. Later these plans will be submitted to the proper government authorities at Washington for approval. Ward explained that all tournaments will share proceeds with the Red Cross or other funds.

"Some of the events probably will be cancelled because of transportation difficulties," he said. "However, there is no transportation problem at Forest Hills, and apparently none at sites of the three eastern tournaments for which we already have applications."

But what will the U.S.L.T.A. do for men players?
Ward said the association would depend upon the crop of good junior players, such as the Bob Falkenburg, Hollywood, Calif.; Jerry Brink, Seattle, Wash.; Jack Turreo, New Orleans; Jack Geller, New Rochelle, N.Y.; and Charles Oliver, Alan Watson, Dean and Don McNeely, all of New York City.

RESORT TO JUNIORS
"THESE boys are just some of the better junior players," Ward emphasized. "There are many other good performers under 18 around the country. In addition, we will have Francisco Segura of Ecuador and possible Allan D. Russell of Argentina and George Telford-Rogers of Ireland."

Ward said there was a chance that some of the senior players, now in service, could enter the championships in future years. "We just received a letter from Lieut. (JG) Gardner Mulvey of the U.S. Navy, who is now at sea. Mulvey assured Ward that he would try to arrange his forthcoming tour so that it would come during the national championships. Mulvey was confident that other tennis men in service would do likewise."

Meanwhile, ranks of the women players are nearly intact, although former Helen Jacobs has joined the WAVES. Mrs. Sarah Palley Cooke will return to competition this season. She became a mother last year.

Ward concluded, "All of our plans are tentative, but we are optimistic."

Winnipeg Skater Behind 10 Points

WINNIPEG, Feb. 19.—(CP)—Roy Fitzgerald, ex-Minneapolis skater took a 10-point lead over Frank Clark of Winnipeg, former United States national outdoor and indoor champion, in the opening of the twoday Manitoba championships here last night.

Fitzgerald, with 90 points, scored out Clark in the 40-second final in 27.2 seconds and the three-quarter mile race in two minutes, 24.5 seconds. He placed second behind Clark in the two-mile race run in six minutes, 31.2 seconds. Other senior men's races will be run today.

Orioles Pass To New Owner

BALTIMORE, Feb. 20.—(AP)—Jack Dunn, 20-year-old grandson of Mrs. Mary A. Dunn, became the owner of Baltimore Orioles of the International Baseball League Friday, but the controlling stock will be left in trust until Dunn attains the age of 26.

Ontario Session Is Adjourned Pending Report on Revenue
TORONTO, Feb. 20.—(CP)—Premier Gordon Coombs yesterday moved adjournment of the Ontario legislature session until March 9.

Provincial Treasurer Mitchell F. Hepburn would have information on the Dominion government's plans regarding Ontario revenue loans from automobiles and liquor before preparing his budget.

The premier said the total involved was "probably $100,000,000 in the coming year."

The premier said he was hopeful that the Dominion government would compensate the province for lost revenues.

In the letter and the spirit of the Dominion-provincial tax agreement those revenues should be available and if they are not, financial position and autonomy of this province are seriously threatened," he said.

Stick Bill Alone $100

Cost to Equip Each Player $250 Says Canadiens Trainer
By CHARLES EDWARDS
TORONTO, Feb. 20.—(CP)—Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League figure it costs $250 to equip each player during a season. Sticks cost $2 each and trainer Bill O'Brien estimates each player uses 50 sticks in a season.

Next heaviest item is 567 for boots and skates—two pairs to a player. O'Brien recalls that Dunc Munro, the old Montreal Maroons defenceman, was particularly fussy about his skates. Munro was always falling over backward to have them ground four inches of the runner left on the ice instead of three. Bill forgot to have the job done so the night of the next game he slipped and wrapped them as though they had been ground.

Munro was satisfied and a couple of minutes after the game started he scored on a line rush. "They're just right now," he shouted to O'Brien. "Don't touch these skates again."

"So you see," concluded Bill, "there isn't anything wrong with a pair of skates that a goal or two can fix."

Incidentally, on top of what that

Sometimes players, dissatisfied with their skates, use more than two pairs in a year. O'Brien recalls that Dunc Munro, the old Montreal Maroons defenceman, was particularly fussy about his skates. Bill forgot to have the job done so the night of the next game he slipped and wrapped them as though they had been ground.

Winner Meets Currie

By Robt Ripley

Mustangs Play Lethbridge
In Alberta Senior Series
CALGARY, Feb. 20.—(CP)—It will be the two R.C.A.F. teams—Calgary Mustangs versus Lethbridge Bombers in the Alberta Mustangs Senior League's semi-final playoff show to see who takes on Calgary Currie, the league's top finisher, for the title.

The Currie assured themselves of a bye into the playoffs by clinching the league leadership a while back and their remaining two games in the regular schedule are merely formalities as far as the leadership is concerned.

Likewise Mustangs, building up an early-season play of victories have assured themselves of second place and will meet Bombers, third place finishers in a best-of-three playoff series.

A glance at the latest league's record shows the Mustangs will take on Currie in a best of five series.

League officials say the playoffs must be decided by March 16 so as to allow Currie to be ready to meet the British Columbia representative in an Alberta-B.C. title series beginning March 18 at Calgary.

Red Deer's last place Army Wheelers, with but four wins to show for 22 games, have been out of the playoff picture for some time. But last Wednesday night they routed Lethbridge's chances of catching the second-place Mustangs in a game that ended with a wild third period net. Not that it matters, for Bombers are assured of the third and last playoff spot.

A glance at the latest league's scoring averages supplies of the answer as to why Currie will finish on top, at least seven points ahead of Mustangs even if they lose both remaining games and the Airborne win their last two games.

Top scorers were Currie men, Pte. Alex Koles, the former Blackhawk, headed the list with 20 points for goals and 32 for assists. Pte. Tony Demars, former New York Ranger, was second with 32 for goals and 38 for assists and Pte. Don Dracem, former Cleveland Barons, third with 15 points for goals and 24 for assists.

The order-in-council, published last night in the Canada Gazette, said the "small-mouth black bass which were planted in the waters of Prince Albert National Park have now reached the stage where it is desirable to allow fishing of this species."

Water Powers for Industrial Relations Board Planned

Manning Introduces Bill To Transfer Labor Control From Old Fisheries Act

Wider powers will be given the board of industrial relations, under a bill which was introduced into the legislature Friday by Hon. E. C. Manning, minister of trade and industry. The bill, to enact the Labor Welfare Act, was given first reading.

I Saw Today
 Mr. Manning introduced two other bills at the session, one to amend the Industrial Wages Security Act, and another to amend the Alberta Industrial Act. The bill to amend the Industrial Wages Security Act makes a total of four bills, under the name of the Labor Welfare Act, the first being introduced at Thursday's opening session by Premier Abernethy. It is to amend the District Courts Act.

The Labor Welfare Act will transfer from the old Fisheries Act all measures dealing with labor conditions, and place these under the board of industrial relations. The board of industrial relations, in its new order, will give the board power to make investigations and issue orders, in the whole field of labor welfare.

TWO PROVISIONS
 Two provisions deal with holidays with pay, and the kind of clothing a person may wear in plants where close proximity to moving parts is a danger. The bill will also deal with the employment of women in industry, and will regulate the employment of women in plants where close proximity to moving parts is a danger. The bill will also deal with the employment of women in industry, and will regulate the employment of women in plants where close proximity to moving parts is a danger. ## Good Neighbor Policy Helped By New Picture at Capitol

One of the outstanding features of the celebrations of Washington's birthday, which is on Monday, is the opening of the Capitol theatre, of the great picture picture, "Yankee Doodle Dandy," with James Cagney, Irene Manning and a host of stars of stage and screen. Washington's birthday and the opening of a picture that epitomizes the character of the American people, further cement the "Good Neighbor" policy and program existing between the people of the Dominion, and the United States. "I am happy indeed to bring to Edmonton audiences on Washington's birthday, the picture that has served audiences along in New York and other major centres. "It is a pleasure to be able to bring here on this occasion when the "Good Neighbor" policy is being fostered and developed here," said Mr. Wilson. "And while we are honouring Washington and "Good Neighbor" we also are honouring that great artist of stage and screen, George M. Cohan, whose irrepressible good humor, infectious flow of melody and appeal to all classes, has endeared him to the hearts of millions."

Leaves for East Planes Search Northland For Missing Craft

Search for two United States Army Air Transport Command planes, missing between the Yukon and the coast for more than two weeks, with 19 persons aboard, is continuing, but so far no trace has been found either of planes or occupants. The planes, flying in opposite directions, disappeared on Friday, Feb. 5, while enroute to the Yukon. One ship was last observed near Watson Lake, where it had asked for landing instructions before disappearing. The other was thought to have been seen at the Fort Nelson area, further south.

R.C.A.F. planes from No. 2 Air Observers school and operational aircraft from the North West Stn. group, have been conducting a systematic search along the coast. The search is continuing, but so far no trace has been found either of planes or occupants.

SOMEWHAT IN A HURRY
 A sergeant spotted something in the bush in the Grande Prairie area, he thought was a craft. As a result the search was concentrated on that area for a time but nothing was located before darkness set in. Saturday planes were flying low over the area, looking down the lead provided by the sergeant. In addition, a sweep was made of the district around Lesser Slave Lake, but so far nothing has been sighted, according to the report.

"The area is so vast and the bush so thick that spotting a grounded aircraft is difficult," Wing Commander McFarlane said. United States officers pointed out there has been several flights of the aircraft.

Your Baby And Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDERED

It should be plain to any mother that the hours of daytime are for the children's recreation and the hours of evening for their work-a-day parents.

It is only in the daytime that a child can have an opportunity to get out in the air and the sun. It is then only that he can have companionship with children of the same age.

When the evening comes, the child who has been occupied with his own household duties, and a child can give his parents that typical of childhood, without being constantly thwarted, scolded, nagged and punished by his on-looking adults.

The child who sleeps by day and plays up at night, lives in a world peopled entirely by adults. She takes part in their activities, goes to church, shops, to the movies, to make visits or take part in entertainments. It is an unnatural life and makes for waned energy, spoiled or overindulged children.

Mr. M. says that she has seen all this to a friend who allows her two-year-old daughter to sleep until 10 p.m. and then sleep for up to 11 the same hour at night.

The child is happy and adorable but she has some bad habits. You never know when she is going to come up and kick and yell at you. If the grandmother criticizes the mother, poor the child, then she is as bad as ever. It is a pity that will help her to read something in your column about this.

Surely any mother must be hard-headed indeed who puts into practice methods of child-rearing that are the very opposite of the usual and the familiar. If she does know that a child of five years should be up at 7, and in bed by the same time at night, it is very foolish because she will know that this is the natural way of child-rearing.

As for the habit, there are some who think that a child should be as destructive of a piece of furniture as the dog of the back house. She keeps children as in a cage, and she will be other children that they want, then mother, when all this is said, she is as bad as ever. It is a pity that will help her to read something in your column about this.

It is helpful to learn the good and pleasant ways to greet children, by putting their hands or expressing their wishes. An object can be given to a child to do the thing which in the past has seemed to work so well.

Our jacket, "Hours of Sleep" may be read by sending a Social Statement, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Elder, in care of this newspaper.

Debunker American Indians are not a vanishing race.

Whoever started the idea that the American Indian are a "vanishing race" was an unscrupulous liar. It was an unscrupulous liar who started the idea that the American Indian are a "vanishing race" was an unscrupulous liar.

The Indian Bureau, instead of doing out the Indians are rapidly increasing, and during the past ten years, their numbers have increased nearly a hundred thousand—more than the general average of Americans.

Modern sanitation, and medical services have contributed to this increase. Indians have contributed greatly to America, including Wild Rogers, Charlie Curtis, Sam Gray, Ace Blue Eagle, and George Iron Horse.

They have volunteered 32,000 men in the armed services.

This Not This

Mother: "I'll bet I get my side of the sheet smoother than you do yours."

Mother: "That sheet just of mine. Do I have to tell you every day how to make a bed?"

"Making bedtimes pleasant increases a child's desire to learn" is an axiom worth more than its weight in gold.

McCoy Health Service

Everyone has adenoid tissue. It is only when it becomes enlarged that it is dangerous to health. Enlarged adenoids often accompany enlarged tonsils, swollen nose, and throat. The causes of these troubles are usually simple and the cure is usually simple.

Due to the location of the adenoid tissue, when it becomes enlarged it may cut off the breathing through the nose, so that the child is forced to breathe with the mouth open and usually sleeps in this position.

The adenoid tissue is a lymphatic growth on the inside of the throat, since it is situated in the upper part of the nose, cannot be seen from the outside. Throat washing is the outstanding symptom of the adenoids have enlarged. A month that hangs open, the dull expression, a lack of pep, and a listless attitude are all signs of adenoids need attention.

If the trouble continues for a long time, it may result in a deformation of the face. As the teeth may become misshapen, the throat work of the mouth becomes narrowed and the base of the nose broadened.

The enlarged adenoids often the child's life and give him a dull, stupid expression. The child is often a victim of night terrors, as the interference with breathing causes the child to feel a suffocation. They often snore while sleeping, or are restless, and may breathe in loud snorts.

When enlarged adenoids are present, the child will suffer from ear, nose, and throat troubles, and are especially predisposed to colds and bronchitis. In some cases, the adenoids may become infected and the infection spread to the ear-nose-throat glands.

Universal Golden Rule Would End Divorce

Golden Rule Practiced as Faithfully After Vows as Before Never Fails to Assure Continued Marital Happiness

A young couple who are about to take each other for better or for ill, should be given a rule to follow that will assure them a success of their marriage.

Surely, that is easy. There is one rule for making a happy marriage. It is the Golden Rule. Do unto others as you would have them do unto you. Especially when you are married to them. Be the kind of a husband that you would want if you were a wife. Make the kind of a wife you would want if you were a husband. Try to make your dreams on an ideal marriage come true.

KEEP LOVE ALIVE She would like him to tell her, matter how old and wrinkled she is, that he loves her. She would like him to tell her, matter how old and wrinkled she is, that he loves her.

She would like him to tell her, matter how old and wrinkled she is, that he loves her. She would like him to tell her, matter how old and wrinkled she is, that he loves her.

Don't Miss "Yankee Doodle Dandy"—It's Star Spangled Entertainment—At the Capitol Monday, Washington's Birthday

As a Salute to Our "GOOD NEIGHBORS" We Present

YANKEE DOODLE DANDY

Starts at Edmonton's Capitol Theatre, Monday, February 22

Highlight of Notable Picture

Here is a memorable scene from "Yankee Doodle Dandy," the mighty Warner Brothers picture which Manager Walter P. Wilson is bringing to the Capitol theatre screen next Monday. Irene Manning, glamorous singing star, is seen playing the role of the gorgeous Fay Templeton, of happy and imperishable memory. In the above scene Miss Manning and the chorus boys are singing "So Long Mary." This song was one of the many hits in George M. Cohan's musical comedy "Forty-Five Minutes From Broadway," which swept the country 30 and more years ago. In the same show were such hits as "Mary is a Grand Old Name" and the song which gave the show its title. Miss Manning is said by old-timers to sing the "So Long Mary" song just as effectively as did Miss Templeton in the good old days of yore.

Capitol Theatre Shows "Yankee Doodle Dandy"

James Cagney Plays Role of America's Greatest Dancing Showman, George M. Cohan

—Starts Monday

Coming to the Capitol theatre Monday is one of the most spectacularly successful motion pictures of recent years, one that has won almost unprecedented acclaim wherever shown and one that has brought in peak returns, governed only by the capacity of the theatres to hold patrons, namely, "Yankee Doodle Dandy."

Manager Walter P. Wilson, of the Capitol, on Saturday expressed great satisfaction at having booked this major attraction.

It is founded on the life of George M. Cohan, one of Broadway's elite authors and producers. The leading male role is taken by James Cagney, who won outstanding applause from discerning critics for his portrayal of the "Yankee Doodle Boy."

The Capitol engagement will be the first popular price, continuous engagement of the highly successful screen biography of Cohan. The film, which stars James Cagney and features such performers as Joan Leslie, Walter Huston, Richard Whorf and Irene Manning, just recently concluded a Broadway run of more than 20 weeks at $2.50 prices.

Much of the footage of "Yankee Doodle Dandy" deals with the old variety era of the American stage at the turn of the century, a period of American history with which Director Mike Curtiz had no first-hand knowledge. He had no first-hand knowledge of an American small town when he directed "You're Laughing" or with the wild West when he made "Hodge City." Curtiz has a high, wide and handsome imagination, capable of making up for any lack of direct acquaintance with a subject.

SOLID FOUNDATION
Robert Buckner spent several months doing research in New York City and reminiscing with George M. Cohan, who took an active interest in the picture's progress and success. William Culler, Inc., who was a professional actor before the war, Cohan learned to talk, or even dance, was the chief technical adviser.

Johnny Doyle, who danced in several Cohan shows, made certain that Cagney's impersonation of the song and dance man's technique was accurate. In addition to his other characteristics, Curtiz is careful, but, in the final analysis, the film's punch, timeliness and inspirational uplifter were the result of four factors: (1) the Curtiz touch; (2) the story of a great American; (3) the Cohan music which is liberally sprinkled throughout the picture; and (4) a magnificent performance by Cagney.

TREMENDOUS TASK
Curtiz, who confuses entire film crews by referring to "slave dacks," when he really means stage dacks, summed it up very neatly when he surveyed the tremendous task of bringing the Cohan biography to the screen.

"All we have to do," said Curtiz, "is to put 60 years into 12 reels of film in eight months." He did it!

Proud Man

Walter P. Wilson, manager of the Capitol theatre, who on Saturday announced that on Monday there will come to his theatre one of the outstanding motion picture productions of all time, Warner Brothers "Yankee Doodle Dandy," starring James Cagney, Irene Manning, and other foremost players of Hollywood. Mr. Wilson stated that, while he has viewed most of the major Hollywood productions, none has given him greater satisfaction than "Yankee Doodle Dandy." He feels sure that with the inexhaustible, melodious Cohan melodies permeating the score that Edmonton theatre-goers will be given one of their greatest treats of all time. "Yankee Doodle Dandy" is sure to be a hit, and I am happy to say that its engagement opens on Washington's birthday," said Mr. Wilson.

Yankee Doodle Boy Achieved Success

George M. Cohan, the great Broadway actor, composer and playwright, who glorified the United States flag on the stage, as Florenz Ziegfeld glorified the American girl, made no greater contribution to this glorification than in his long "Yankee Doodle Boy."

Here is the chorus:
"I'm a Yankee Doodle Dandy,
A Yankee Doodle do, or die,
A real live nephew of my Uncle Sam's."

Written on the Fourth of July, I've got a Yankee Doodle sweet heart,
She's my Yankee Doodle Joy,
Yankee Doodle came to London,
Just to ride the ponies,
I am the Yankee Doodle Boy."

Above are shown the flags of 16 of the 26 Allied Nations. The flags are a symbol of Allied unity. In this connection it is well to recall the words of President Roosevelt, in his speech delivered Jan. 6, 1942. He declared that "Plans have been laid here and in the other capitals for co-ordinated and co-operative action by all the United Nations—military action and economic action. Already we have organized unified command of land, sea and air forces in the eastern-western Pacific theatre of war. There will be a continuation of conferences and consultations among military staffs, so that the plans and operations of each will fit into a general strategy designed to crush the enemy. We shall not fight isolated wars—each nation going its own way. These twenty-six nations are united—not in spirit and determination alone, but in the broad conduct of the war in all its phases. For the first time since the Japanese and the Nazis started along their blood-stained course of conquest they now face the fact that superior forces are assembling against them.

Premier Lauds Good Neighbor Policies Here

Pooling of Canadian and United States energies will contribute in no small measure to the winning of the war, according to Premier William Aberhart. The Premier's statement was made in connection with the development of the "Good Neighbor" program being developed by the two countries as a result of the close cooperation and collaboration in the war effort, and the influx of thousands of United States civilians and war-project workers.

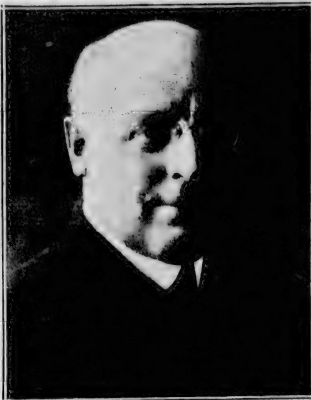

The Premier declared that in this trying time each was learning from the other. He contrasted the pre-war activities of pleasure-seekers with the intense devotion to duty characterizing the work of those who come as a result of wartime activities.

In the last few years, Alberta has been closely associated with the United States, in that many thousands of United States citizens have come to this province to enjoy their vacations. They have revelled in the delights of the Jasper, Banff and other national parks. They have travelled over the incomparable Great Canadian Highway connecting Jasper and Banff, and have enjoyed the sights, such as the Columbia Ice Field, along the way.

Also, many Albertans have spent their holidays in the United States—in California, the parks and other areas to the south of the international boundary.

Now, more than ever, the two countries are drawn together in a common endeavor to break the Hitler-Tokyo Axis and to drive Hitlerism and Fascism from the earth once and for all. It is in this spirit that Alberta has joined in the "Good Neighbor" program with unreserved strength. Visiting this province, United States citizens always have found it an exceptionally attractive place and have lauded its progressive Premier William Aberhart, who has declared that the war has strengthened the firm bonds already existing between Canada and the United States. He feels that pooling of efforts will more effectively contribute to winning the war.

PROGRESSIVE PROVINCE

Alberta has commended itself to the United States as the province in which many of the finest pieces of progressive social legislation have started. The work of the government on behalf of the battle against cancer has won wide renown. There has been praise for the progressive nature of the Workmen's Compensation, Mothers'

Allowance and other features. The methods employed in constructing Alberta highways have won praise. When it is considered that the climate here, with its wide-sweeping temperatures presents one of the greatest problems in highway construction, then the achievements of the Alberta government in building the excellent highway network with which the province is equipped, may be appreciated at their full value.

Know Alberta As Progressive Social Centre

Natural resources make almost wealth in agriculture, coal, tar sands, salt and many other commodities essential to human progress.

In announcing the "Good Neighbor" program, the Premier said:

"The war has served to strengthen the firm bonds of friendship which have always existed between citizens of Alberta and citizens of the United States. In the previous years, thousands of our neighbors to the south came to visit us and to share our great scenic playgrounds with us."

"Today we welcome them in ever-increasing numbers, some who come to stay but a short while before moving on to further fields, others to make their residence among us while they devote their energies to the tremendous tasks of war."

"In this time of trying, we are pooling our energies and our resources, we are contributing in no small measure to the same goal of effort against the enemy."

"We trust that in the years to come this cooperation will be maintained and that we shall always remain good neighbors and co-workers in the cause of freedom and security."

Welcome to U.S.

The following invitation appears on the Statue of Liberty in New York harbor:

Give me your tired, your poor, Your huddled masses yearning to breathe free.

The wretched refuse of your teeming shore.

Send these, the homeless, tempest-tost, to me, I lift my lamp beside the golden door.

Historic Scenes as Alaska Highway Officially Opened

Good Neighbors were drawn closer than ever together on Nov. 20 last when the Alaska Highway officially was opened. The thin ribbon across the highway was cut in the presence of a distinguished assemblage of representatives of Canada and the United States. Civilian and military dignitaries were present. The ribbon was cut by Hon. Ian Mackenzie, minister of pensions and health in the Dominion cabinet, who represented this country. Brig-

Gen. James A. O'Connor, officer commanding the Northwest Service Command, United States Army was present, as was Maj.-Gen. G. R. Pearkes, V.C., D.S.O., M.C., general officer commanding-in-chief the Pacific Command of the Canadian Army. In the above layout may be seen Mr. Mackenzie, in the upper picture, cutting the ribbon. In the lower picture is shown one of the beautiful scenic views along the highway which connects the two countries more closely than ever.

Canadians Are Happy to Offer A Warm Welcome to American Visitors

Through the years it's always been the same—two friendly neighbours living side by side, exchanging gossip over the back fence, paying visits to each other, keeping a friendly eye on each other's doings.

And now that we're in a war it seems only right that the "friendly neighbours" are more closely knit than ever before, as Allies and brothers-in-arms. We're both in our shirt sleeves now—united in a common cause and a big job of work.

As Canadians we are proud and pleased to welcome many Americans in our midst. We trust that from your stay will come even more cordial relations between our two countries.

Here at EATON'S we've put out the "Welcome Mat" for our American friends. We hope you will enjoy the many shopping services available to you in our store.

Good Neighbors and Fighting Allies are shown above. Solidarity of the Allied cause is emphasized in the above picture. Army, Navy and Air Force are shown. There are fighting sons of Canada, United States, Great Britain, Australia and New Zealand, while, in addition there are two of Canada's splendid fighting women. And these staunch comrades-in-arms are prepared to abide by the message of King George, delivered last Christmas: "On sea, on land, in the air, and in civil life at home, a pattern of effort and mutual service is being traced which may guide those who design the picture of our future security. . . . So let us welcome the future in a spirit of brotherhood, and thus make a world in which, please God, all may dwell together in justice and in peace." Also they subscribe to President Roosevelt's statement that "Certain decisions have been made. In time you will know the decisions. So will our enemies. I can say the decisions are directed toward the offensive. . . . This war will finally be won by the co-ordination of all the armies, navies and air forces of the United Nations operating in union against our enemies."

Getting Around

The White House, in Washington, after the fall of Singapore, Australia was warned to "prepare" with the "New Order" in Asia or face annihilation. Shortly before Midway and the Coral Sea battles, the Japanese boasted they would soon cut the sea life line between Australia and the west coast of the United States.

As things have really changed in the Pacific war theatre after all. The link to the White House has been apparently postponed indefinitely. Australia still stands as a strong ally for a few more effective air raids.

Instead of new and more dazzling victories, the Japanese people are being warned to prepare for a fight for their lives on the home soil of Japan proper.

There is no doubt the Japanese soldier fights with almost fanatical bravery and sacrifice. But so far he has always fought with the knowledge that his wife and family were safe in the far-off homeland.

It remains to be seen how this same soldier will behave when he learns his wife is suffering under an almost constant rain of missiles from the sky.

True champions are a rare breed. They have confidence, but it is never a confidence based upon a multi-faith in divine ancestry. The intelligent champion uses his own scientific knowledge, fully cognizant of the possibility of his own defeat under certain circumstances. The Japanese man more than the German, was no exception in the summer of the year 1914.
